Sept. 9, 1927.

Mrs. Fannie Preslor,
Florence, Texas.

My dear Cousin Fannie:

Your letter of April 28th has remained among the unanswered portion of my mail up until today. I have been seeking time to write you and regret that I have been so tardy. I trust that you papa and mamma are well and that your niece, Lorene, who graduated this Summer is getting along quite well. Tell her to make a school teacher out of herself if she does not marry too young. Your father being only 70 years old should remain young. We have quite a lot of people over here that age that are very active.

I trust you are doing well with your millinery business. Things in Georgia are about as usual, with some good spots and some poor spots.

I do not get to New York as often as I did, having been there only twice this year.

We purchased the Eatonton Cotton Mills, Eatonton, Georgia, about two months ago, but we have decided to sell it on account of Eatonton being so far from Barnesville. Mr. Cason, the young man that married my daughter, Evelyn, and myself are now equipping here a new Rayon plant for manufacturing silk underwear.

My big 3,000 acre farm gives me a world of trouble. The labor is upset, and I do not know how to handle them, as they move from pillar to post.

Give my love to Cousin Mollie and the other members of the family when you write them.

Sincerely yours,

JCC:S
